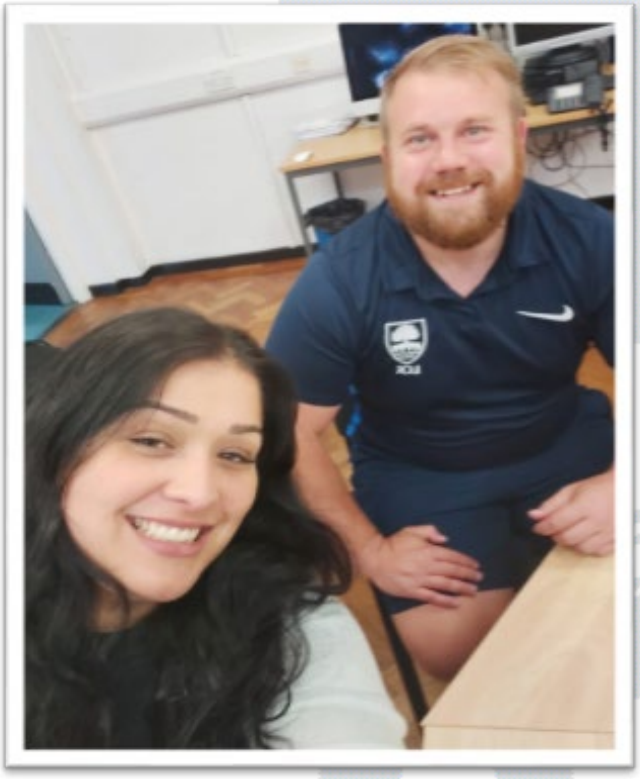
Cleeve Park School Sixth Form

Year 13 Leavers Newsletter

No exams!

Well, who would have known that this pandemic would have hit you guys on your last year of 6th Form. Such a sudden stop to your 6th Form time, and yet you were expected for a short while to just get on with it from home until it was announced there'd be no exams. You've stayed strong, which I know for some of you this was hard, but you kept it going and stayed in touch until we get to this place here: The Finish Line. So I wish that every one of you continue to stay strong, keep going, and stay in touch. It's been a pleasure and I'm so proud of you xx

Mrs Osman



Abandoning you in year 10 and 11

It has been a long journey with many different involvements between myself and your year, starting as your Head of Year in Years 7 to 9 before "abandoning" you in year 10 and 11!!

You have been an amazing year group and over the seven years we have lost a few faces and gained plenty on 6th form. I can honestly say it have been a pleasure teaching, mentoring and looking after your year group and I wish you every success moving forward!!!

The magic of beginnings

These have been very strange times indeed and I am so sorry we never got to say a proper goodbye, especially not having a Prom or BBQ.

I would just like to wish you all the very best for the future and I hope that you will all come back and say 'hi' sometime when all this craziness is over.

'And suddenly you just know it's time to start something new and trust the magic of beginnings….'

Mrs A xx

Be kind

"In such a strange year it was a pleasure to meet so many talented, determined and caring young people. Special mention to the historians who I would like to thank for helping me to settle into my new school.

I am sure that you will all find the resilience and resourcefulness to meet the next challenge in your path. Be kind and make the world a better place."

Mr Barritt

Successful and happy

To my old 11xy1 class,

I wish you all the best in the future. Although our class was definitely questionable at times, we had the best two years! And to those angels that stayed on to do literature at A Level, I hope you are all successful and happy! It's a shame we didn't get to do our final exam but I know you all would have done so well!

Good luck, stay safe, and don't forget to come back to visit!

Miss Keeler

Be humble, be hungry.

Dear Year 13,

Though this is a very unusual way to end the year I wish you all the very best in your next steps. Whether it is higher education or getting your foot in the door I hope you all continue to strive for the best 'be humble, be hungry'. See the world, volunteer for a worthy cause, go on a lads'/gals' holiday. Whatever your next steps I hope you have a wealth of experiences, constantly learn new things and I wish you all the best

Take a chill pill!

Hey guys, seems like a long time since this Covid-19 thing stopped all the fun. When George Mentessi told me to take a chill pill after marking his Economic mocks, I thought he was being cheeky. But you know something? He had the right idea. I feel so chilled now that not even Dylan Tanner could get me to raise my voice. Seems like this epidemic has its good points.

Hang loose, y'all.

Mr Seaward

Many successes for the future.

Dear Year 13,
We were so sorry that your time here had to be cut short so abruptly due to the extenuating circumstances due to COVID and were denied the many end of school ceremonies that previous year groups before you have experienced. You were an exceptional year group and deserve to have many successes in the future. When these strange times have passed and socially distancing is a thing of the past, please come back to visit us to say goodbye.

Good Luck, Mrs Tyler Maher and Mrs Bonner

Ode to my Year 13 Science Students

First and foremost, I should say,
You will be missed in every way.
Your dedication, wit and charm,
Has made me proud to be your "Ma'am"
Know my blessings go with you all,
As you move on to student halls,
Your time as my students will always be
Remembered and cherished, very fondly.
Wishing each and every one of you
The happiness and success you deserve in life.

With warmest wishes
Mrs Blamey

Good Luck in the future

You were the first Cleeve Park Health and Social Care class! 21 started the course and 10 made it to the end. It's been interesting! It's been fun! You will forever be etched in my memory!!!!! (I think you've aged me 10 years) Seriously though, good luck in the future. I hope you achieve all you want in life and that life is good to you all. Live it to the full but don't fall living it!! Take care guys,

Tracey Green x

New exciting challenges!

Dear Year 13,

As you move on to a new stage in your life, so do I, so I know how you feel when you are looking at facing new and exciting challenges. Embrace these key moments in your life as this will help to mold you into young adults. I wish you all lots of luck in your chosen future pathways.

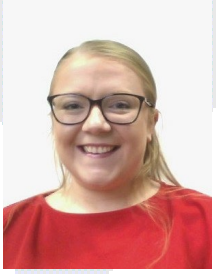
Kind regards, Mrs Tyler Maher

Good Luck!

Dear Year 13,

The Drama department wish you all the best with your future. Thank you for being such a brilliant cohort especially with all of the challenges you were faced with this year. Good luck and stay safe.

Kindly, Mrs Celeb, Mrs Osman & Miss Cutting



I have confidence in you!

Where do I start?

My lovely Psychology class; Ben Bird- he started lockdown one year early. So lazy, he is the only person I know who rests before he gets tired. Paige, Sophia, Mia, Carolina, Kelly - you lovely, lovely people. You will go on and do great things. Sultan - so laid back, I had to get a reclining chair in C12. My equally lovely Sociology class; Ronnie - I am your father; you are my son. Ella and Milly - have confidence in yourselves. I have confidence in you! Michael, Lauren Gabrielle, Callum - I shall miss you all. Callum - you could be a morning person, if only they started morning at noon. Billy - I forgive you for throwing ink on my wall in year 11. Luke and Callum - never mind 96% attendance, minimum 0.96 would have been nice - LOL. My form 13SCT: Oliver- you will one day be on one of those shows on Channel 5 about people with strange eating habits. Scott - good luck with the paramedic thing. Bad luck to the Eagles. Jamie, Emilis and Emily - thanks for all those long, fascinating chats we had. Oaklee and Gabrielle - make sure my room is clean. Dylan - good speech on last day, where did that come from? Paige - just think you never have to do another homework for Mr Seaward ever gain. Emily- a late addition to the class but better late than never. Ellen- it's been emotional. If I've missed anyone, either sorry I forgot or you are a person of no consequence whatsoever, one of the two.

Shame we never had a proper goodbye but I'm still here if you need me……. and always remember 'you don't need a parachute if you want to go skydiving, you only need a parachute if you want to go skydiving twice' xxxx

Mr Scott

Lovely people

To my lovely year 13D History class!

Lauren, Sophia, Mia, Michael, Katie, Jamie, George, Emilis, Charlie and Joshua. I am so sad that you did not get to sit your Italy exam after all the hard work you put in this year! You were an absolute pleasure to teach and you are all lovely people. I wish you all the very best with your future careers and further education. Remember everything you have learnt and when you are travelling around Europe throughout your lives, make sure you take in as much history as you possibly can!

Lots of love to you all, Mrs Evans

All your dreams come true

All the best for a bright future! May there be success at every turn of life and all your dreams come true! Ps carry plasters!
The Office Team

Best of luck with whatever follows the weirdest last term ever! Don't forget to let us know what happens next in your story.

Best wishes
